PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Hi, I am Noel V Abraham. I am a front-end developer from Kerala, India. I always like to explore the vast world of technology. I know that the tech domain is going through a rapid change. So, I try to keep myself up-to-date all the time. I am a self-learner who is ready to adapt new technologies.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Web Content Manager

Collegedunia Web Pvt. Ltd

2022 September - Present

I work closely with web markup languages like HTML, CSS, & JavaScript. The primary technology used is Content Management Systems for updating the contents of the website on a daily basis. Working with affiliation tools and SEO is also a part of my career.
